Long Acre Place

THAMES DITTON, SURREY

Maddox Homes are proud to present Long Acre Place, an exclusive collection of just 11 brand new luxury houses, built in traditional brick and block and positioned in the highly desirable area of Thames Ditton, within easy reach of Surbiton mainline train station (Waterloo in around 20-minutes).

Offering spectacular views overlooking open fields, this stunning selection of semi-detached and detached homes have been thoughtfully designed throughout and provide versatile accommodation set over three floors.

A picturesque suburban village, Thames Ditton is located in the borough of Elmbridge in Surrey, just outside Greater London but within the Greater London Urban Area. Its centre is set on a winding High Street with an array of independent restaurants, coffee shops and boutique businesses, whilst being on the southern bank of the River Thames with stunning views towards Hampton Court Palace. Within the area there are also many golf courses as well as picturesque walking routes including Esher Common, Bushy Park and the Nature Reserve.

The Houses:

Designed to be flexible with smart and sleek open plan kitchen/dining spaces, bi-fold doors dramatically frame the rear gardens creating the perfect space for entertaining and alfresco dining with family and friends. Separate living rooms provide an area for a quiet night in with feature fireplaces adding to the relaxed atmosphere. Spacious bedrooms, impressive master with ensuite facilities and dressing room, three further bedrooms and an additional bathroom. Utility rooms and downstairs cloakrooms complete these superb homes.

Modelled to an exceptionally high standard the specification has been thoughtfully considered for a stylish and modern lifestyle. Contemporary kitchens with quartz worktops and branded appliances, luxury fitted bathroom suites, underfloor heating to the ground floor and cleverly designed wardrobes are just a few of the standout features.

The Area:

Thames Ditton is ideally situated in the heart of a vibrant local community with excellent schools and a wide range of local village shops nearby. Commuters will have all the access they need with both Thames Ditton and Hinchley Wood train stations providing a fast route to central London as well as trains from Surbiton to Waterloo in as little as 20 minutes. The A3 is only a short drive away opening access to the M25, M3 and wider motorway network. The popular towns of Hampton Court, Surbiton, Kingston Upon Thames, Esher and Cobham with their variety of independent restaurants, boutiques, cinema's and of course the historical Hampton Court Palace are all within driving distance or easily assessable via public transport.

Discover your new home at Long Acre Place. A superb small private conclave that will be a special place to live.

Buying with Maddox

At Maddox Homes our aim is to build to the latest standards, including for energy efficiency.

Why is a Maddox home more energy efficient than an older home?

Only 4% of older built homes
have an Energy Performance Certificate rating of A or B, meaning the amount of energy required to run it is over double that of the average new build home. *

The average new build home owner could save up to £2,600
a year on their household bills.*

* Source of Information: Home Builders Federation & UK Government.

The cost of upgrading an older home to the same energy standard of a new build is around

£45,000*

The carbon footprint of a new build home is cut by over

50%

compared to an older house.*

* Source of Information: Home Builders Federation & UK Government.
